A Prayer for the Long Life of
Her Eminence Sakya Jetsün Chimey Luding Rinpoche

Through the blessings of an ocean of deities of longevity and immortality,
You descend from the celestial race of luminosity and bestow the splendor of great bliss.
Foremost dākini, with mastery in the infinite activity of a mantric vidyādhara—stay with us, we pray!

Protectress of the teachings and of wandering beings,
You arose from the lineage and Dharma of revered Sakya, the sun of the teachings:
Turn the wheel for the complete accomplishment of immortality,
And ever increase your twofold activity.

Fully traversing the path of deathless freedom,
Ripen your continuum, attain the good fortune of liberation,
And see directly the true face of reality.
May you be forever steadfast in auspicious benefit and bliss that never wanes.

This prayer was composed by Kyabjé Dezhung Rinpoche. The English text is based partly on prior translations and revised after a careful comparison with the Tibetan text. This online text was compiled and formatted by The Sakya Tradition publications team for the auspicious occasion of Her Eminence Sakya Jetsün Chimey Luding Rinpoche’s birthday in 2019.